Wilburton 1801 and 1803-5, Wentworth 1813-37 and Witchford 1813-37 have been copied from the Bishop's Transcripts. All the others have been copied from the registers.

No marriages in the period took place at Landwade or Ely Cathedral.

No marriage records survive for Downham 1806-12, or for Wilburton 1802, and 1806-12.

In Boyd's index some parishes were copied only from the Bishop's Transcripts, which often have missing years where transcripts were not sent in or have been lost. For those years that are shown as missing in "Ely Records, A Handlist of the Records of the Bishop and Archdeacon of Ely", by Dorothy M. Owen, the marriages have been indexed from the registers, e.g. for Great Abington for the years 1805-07, but no attempt has been made to check the completeness of the surviving Bishop's Transcripts by comparing them with the registers for other years.
